

ANTHONY R. COSCIA
WINDELS MARX LANE & MITTENDORF, LLP

Anthony R. Coscia is a partner with Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP. His practice focuses on corporate, commercial, and real estate matters, with a concentration on the financial elements of these transactions. He represents financial institutions, investors, and major corporations on whose behalf he has handled a broad variety of matters, including: corporate and real estate finance transactions, asset restructure and recovery, regulatory compliance, mergers and acquisitions, and general litigation. Mr. Coscia also regularly advises infrastructure funds, private equity firms, technology companies, not-for-profit organizations, and investor-owned utilities. He has specific experience in the area of redevelopment finance and has worked extensively on infrastructure development projects.

In addition to his private practice, Mr. Coscia serves as chairman of the Board of Directors of the National Railroad Passenger Corporation (Amtrak). Previously he served as chairman of Amtrak's Finance and Audit Committee. Mr. Coscia's contributions to Amtrak are the result of his June 2010 appointment and his 2015 second term reappointment by President Obama to the Board of Directors.

Mr. Coscia is chairman of Suez North America Inc., the U.S. subsidiary of Suez Environnement SAS. He is a director of OceanFirst Financial Corp. and OceanFirst Bank and has served as a director of several public and closely held corporations in the construction, financial services, investment banking, real estate, and manufacturing sectors. In April 2020, he was named to New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy's 21-member Restart and Recovery Commission, which is tasked with guiding the State's transition from COVID-19 quarantine to recovery. In addition, he serves as a trustee of Georgetown University and the New Jersey Community Development Corporation and is a member of the New Jersey Performing Arts Center Council of Trustees, The Partnership for New York City, The Economic Club of New York, and the Regional Plan Association.

Mr. Coscia served as chairman of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey for more than eight years, stepping down from the Board on June 30, 2011. During his tenure, the longest in modern Port Authority history, he served four New Jersey governors and three New York governors. Mr. Coscia oversaw the restoration of the agency after 9/11 as a key player in the region through development of a long-term capital program, assuming the lead role in the redevelopment of the WTC site rebuilding, spearheading multi-billion dollar mass transit improvements, port expansion, modernization of aviation facilities, and the most significant corporate governance and financial management reforms adopted by the Port Authority in more than two decades.

From February 1992 to March 2003, Mr. Coscia served as chair of the New Jersey Economic Development Authority, one of the largest state-sponsored development banks in the United States.

Mr. Coscia is a member of the Executive Committee of Windels Marx and has practiced with the firm for more than 25 years. He served as editor-in-chief of the Rutgers Computer and Technology Law Journal while attending Rutgers University School of Law. He holds a B.S.F.S., Phi Beta Kappa, from Georgetown University, School of Foreign Service. In 2007 he was awarded an honorary doctorate of humane letters from the New Jersey Institute of Technology.
